

Your visit to Marino Library

You are welcome to visit the library. This is what the outside looks like from the street. Our entrance is around the corner.

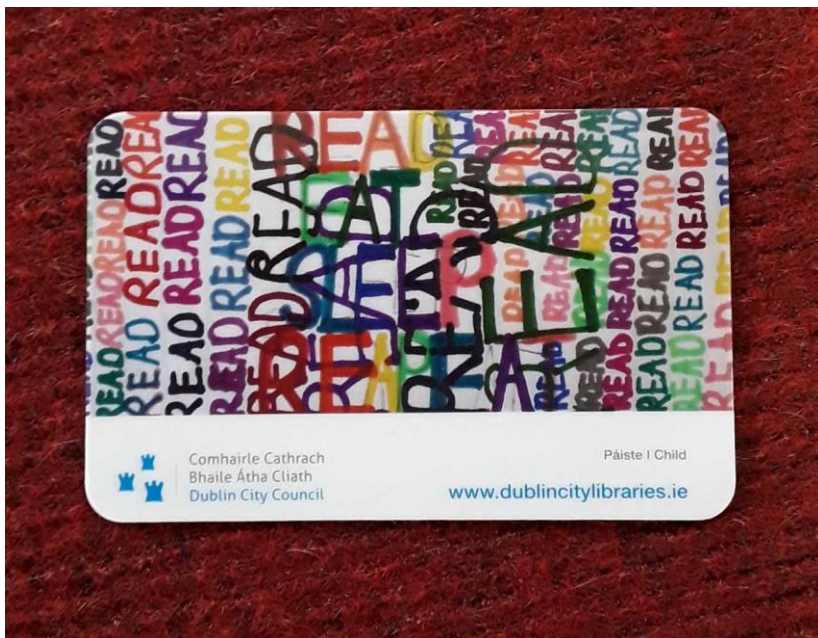

This is what our entrance looks like.

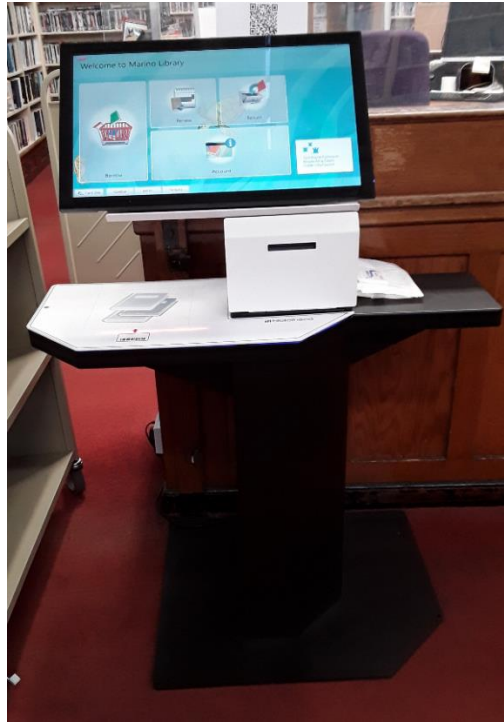

This is the children's library. There are lots of great books. You can borrow books to take home.

In the children's library, you can sit and look at the books. This is what the table and chairs looks like.

When you join the library, you will get a library card. You can borrow 12 items for 3 weeks. You can borrow DVDs too. It's free to join the library. It's free to borrow too.

This is a kiosk where you can borrow and return a book. It will beep when it reads the card. A staff member can show you how it works.

This is what the adult library looks like.

This is the young adult section. It has books for ages 12 – 17.

The library is usually quiet. If you find it to be too noisy, you can ask the library staff for an ear defender to wear.

We have a printer, photocopier and computers. You have to be older to use them.

We have a sensory box of toys that you can use in the library. You can ask the library staff to show you.

