Maids of the Mountains Hockey Club

Three Rock Ladies

Three Rock Rovers Hockey Club (Ladies)

Administrative history

The Maids of the Mountain Ladies' Hockey Club was founded in 1918 by Hilda O'Reilly (1898-1962; later Martin). It merged with Three Rock Rovers Men's Hockey Club in 1999 to become Three Rock Ladies, having shared facilities at the Rovers' Grange Road, Rathfarnham complex since 1988. The founders were 'maids' (wives, girlfriends, sisters or daughters) of Three Rock Rovers players, whose grounds faced the Three Rock Mountain; the operetta Maid of the mountains by Harold Fraser-Simson was being performed in the Gaiety Theatre, Dublin, August 1918; hence the club name adapted, Maids of the Mountain.

Hilda O'Reilly and the dozen or so founders were members of the Voluntary Aid Detachment serving during World War I (many of their relatives were serving soldiers). They founded Maids to counter the 'closed nature' of ladies hockey by 1918, where only past pupils or employees could join existing teams. Hilda was Maids president from 1935-1962.

The team's colours were a purple tunic with a mauve shirt, said to match that of heather on the mountains; lilac socks were added after 1959, and a wrap skirt replaced the tunic in the 1970s. Maids' first grounds were shared with Three Rock Rovers, Foxrock; between 1934-1986 they participated in the Men's Hockey Union Templeogue grounds and pavilion scheme, where pitches were divided among a number of teams. When these grounds were sold in 1985/1986, Maids hired available pitches before moving to Grange Road.

The club was administered by a President, Vice-Presidents, Captain, Club Secretary, Treasurer, General Committee (managing the finances and affairs of the club), Selection Committee and other committees (e.g. social, fund-raising). These were elected at the Maids' Annual General Meeting. Membership consisted of the following categories : full, schoolgirl, pavilion, honorary, associate, veteran, and overseas. The club's teams were also divided into a number of levels : Senior A & B (from 1990), Intermediate A (from 1965) & B (from 1988), Junior A & B (from 1985), Middle A (from 1974) & B (from 1990) and Minor (from 1974). When Maids moved to Grange Road in 1988, it became part of a Joint Executive with Three Rock Rovers, holding monthly committee meetings.

Maids was affiliated with the Leinster Ladies' Hockey Union. In 1920 it won the Irish Senior Cup, the Leinster Senior Cup and the Leinster Senior League; in 1923 the Irish Junior Cup. A complete list of Maids League and Cup victories can be found in The lilac years, pp. 32. 32 Maids would play for the Irish ladies' hockey team; founder Hilda O'Reilly was its captain in the 1920s. Maids toured regularly in Britain, in particular for the annual festival in Llandudno, Wales (1955-1987). International tours have included Germany (1937, 1982, 1986), Holland (late 1940s-early 1950s, 1970, mid-1970s, 1977-1979, 1983), USA (1981), Canada (1981, 1984), and Zimbabwe and South Africa (1997).

Archival history

Papers maintained by Maids of the Mountain Hockey Club until transfer to Dublin City Council in Spring 2010. Much of the collection was gathered by Hilary McDonagh and Orla McKeown from individual club members in the process of researching The Lilac Years

Immediate source of acquisition or transfer

Deposited by Hilary McDonagh and Orla McKeown for Three Rock Ladies Hockey Club, formerly Maid of the Mountains Hockey Club, Spring 2010.

Scope and content

There is a lot of repetition in the Maids archive, with incomplete runs of series in one section supplemented by incomplete runs in another (e.g. minutes, newsletters). The largest and most complete series are the files generated by the Club Captain (1969-1999) and Club Secretary (1970-1999), who were de facto administrators of the club. The one series that goes back to the foundation of the Club, with gaps, is that of the Club Treasurer (1919-1965, 1991-1999), which includes ledgers, a subscription book, bank pass books, cash books and files. Other series are the club minute books (1935-1985); the Presidents' papers (1988-1992); the minute books and files of the General Committee and its sub-committees (1978-2000); material relating to Maids search for a permanent home (1972-1986), its relationship with Three Rock Rovers, ultimately leading to the 1999 merger (1984-1999), and accounts and minutes of the Joint Executive Committee (1988-1997); material relating to Maids/Three Rock Ladies fund-raising (1986-1999) and social events (1994-2007); public relations documentation (1987-1990); and photographs (1918-2000), memorabilia and artefacts (1919-2000), material relating to Lilac Years publication, and external publications (1968-1996).

Many of the items in the archive were compiled for the publication of Maids history The lilac years; material specifically generated by that volume covers the period (1999-2000). Electronic records, primarily related to Lilac years, have been migrated.

Appraisal and destruction

Duplicate material within files has been removed.

Accruals

No accruals expected.
