

GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION

- Contact details for the Data Protection Officer are, Terence O’Keeffe, DPO, Dublin City Council, Wood Quay, Civic Offices, Dublin 8; dataprotection@dublincity.ie.
- The basis for processing your personal data is to process your application for the position applied for with Dublin City Council.
- Storage period – your application will be retained for one year from the date a panel for this position is formed. In exceptional circumstances panels can be extended for an additional year and your personal data will be kept until the extension has expired (usually a further one year, rarely two years).
- If you are not satisfied with this arrangement you can lodge a complaint with the DPC (Office of the Data Protection Commissioner, Canal House, Station Road, Portarlinton, R32 AP23 Co. Laois, email info@dataprotection.ie)
- You have a right to make a data access request to Dublin City Council and this can be done in writing to dataprotection@dublincity.ie