Health and Safety:

19. A Street Performer shall at all times ensure that no aspect of his/her performance endangers the public safety in his/her use of the public place.

Miscellaneous:

20. The Council may prohibit performances in a specific public place on a temporary basis by Executive Order in order to facilitate the construction, development, maintenance or repair of a public place or part thereof or for other infrastructural work thereon or such work on adjoining private property or for other operational reasons.

Exemptions:

21. These Bye-Laws shall not apply to activities taking place in a public place that are organised by the Council or are activities that have received consent from the Council by way of event approval or have received a Public Event Licence under Part XVI of the Planning and Development Act 2000.

Offences:

22. Any person who contravenes any bye-law shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €1500.
23. A person who obstructs or impedes or refuses to comply with a request of an authorised person acting in the exercise of the functions conferred on an authorised person by the Act or a member of An Garda Síochána shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €1500.
24. Where an authorised person or a member of An Garda Síochána is of the opinion that a person is committing or has committed an offence under either of the two preceding bye-laws the authorised person or member of An Garda Síochána may demand the name and address of such a person and if that demand is refused or the person gives a name and address which is false or misleading, that person shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding €1500.
25. Pursuant to Section 204 (3) (d) of the Act where a member of An Garda Síochána is of the opinion that a person is committing or has committed an offence under the preceding three bye-laws, that member may arrest the person without warrant.

Fixed Payment Notice:

26. Where a Bye Law is contravened an authorised person or a member of the Garda Síochána may serve a Fixed Payment Notice in respect of the contravention. The Notice shall specify the name and address of the alleged offender and in general terms the nature of the contravention alleged to have been committed; and the date and place of the alleged contravention. The Notice shall state that if the fixed payment of €75 is paid to the Council within a period of 28 days that no legal proceedings will be instituted against the person in respect of the alleged offence. The Notice shall contain a statement to the effect that the alleged offender is entitled to disregard the Notice and defend a prosecution of the alleged contravention in Court.
27. Any permit issued by the Council may be revoked or not renewed in circumstances where the holder of the permit persistently contravenes or fails to observe these Bye-Laws, whether prosecuted or not for such repeated contraventions; provided however written notice is given to the holder by the Council of each such alleged breach and the applicant is given an opportunity to reply.

Appeals:

28. Where Dublin City Council decides to refuse to give a permit or revoke an existing permit the affected Street Performer may appeal that decision to the Administrative Officer in charge of the Dublin City Council's Licensing Section. If still dissatisfied after this appeal he/she can appeal to a Senior Executive Officer in the Culture, Recreation, Amenity and Community Department. No appeal beyond this will be accepted.
