St. Patrick's Footsteps with Pat Liddy

Wednesday, 13th March at 2pm

Meet in Palace Street (opposite the Olympia Theatre on Dame Street), Dublin 2. Find out some of the real stories of the man we call St. Patrick, his life and travels in Ireland and his reputed (likely true) connections with Dublin. This tour will finish at St. Patrick's Cathedral at 4pm (you may make an optional visit).

Suffragette Walking Tour with Justine Murphy

Monday, 25th March at 11am

Meet outside The Mansion House, Dawson Street, Dublin 2. Hear the songs of the suffragettes and learn about early activists such as Anna Haslam, the militant Irish Women's Franchise League, the amazing feminist paper "The Irish Citizen" and how women workers, nationalism and war affected the fight for equal voting rights.

The Irish War of Independence with Pat Liddy

Wednesday, 10th April at 2.30pm

Meet outside The Mansion House, Dawson Street, Dublin 2. Learn about the Irish War of Independence or Anglo-Irish War which was a guerrilla war fought from 21st January 1919 to 11th July 1921 between the Irish Republican Army and the British security forces in Ireland.

California Hills & Glenaulin Park with Eanna Ní Lamhna

Friday, 12th April at 11am

Meet at the entrance to California Hills Park in Ballyfermot, opposite Ballyfermot Hill on Le Fanu Road, Dublin 10. Join Eanna Ní Lamhna, author of Wild Dublin and wildlife contributor to RTÉ and TV3, for a leisurely stroll exploring the wonderful biodiversity of these two parks.

Let's Walk & Talk... Weekly Schedule

The 'Weekly Walking Groups' are led by a dedicated team of volunteers from the community and demonstrate how collaboration between the community and Dublin City Council can produce such positive results. All walks are FREE, last about 90 minutes and no advance booking necessary.
