How to register your intention of marriage.

The Registration Process

All prospective wedding couples should contact the HSE to inform them of their intention of marriage. Once that is done you can decide on the type of Ceremony you wish to have at City Hall. That can be a Civil or Secular Ceremony. The HSE require a minimum of three months notice of any union. Civil Ceremonies are performed Monday-Friday and Secular ceremonies are performed Monday-Saturday.

Booking Your Ceremony

Secular marriages are arranged with a registered Secular Solemniser, listed on the Humanist Association of Ireland's website, found in the link in the column to the left, under 'Secular Ceremony'. Secular weddings are legally binding. We can provisionally hold a date for two weeks while you organise a Solemniser or Registrar and your reception venue. City Hall is unable to accommodate a full evening reception.

Confirming your Ceremony

The cost of getting married at City Hall is €1250.00. The deposit is €550.00 with a balance of €700.00. Once your deposit is paid you then fill out a booking form specific to City Hall to complete your booking. Your booking is confirmed upon receipt of the booking form. The deposit is non-refundable and the balance of your fees are due no later than 30 days prior to the date of your wedding.

Venue Dressing

Each couple envision a special venue on their wedding day, complete with flowers, candles and personal details that are sentimental to the couple. From elegant aisle markers to fragrant bouquets of your favourite flowers, the Rotunda room can be turned into a unique and exquisite reflection of your personal style. From the moment you step through the ornate balustrades that frame City Hall, you will be immediately enveloped by the splendor and grandeur of your surrounds. In the interest of preserving City Hall, here are a few dos and don'ts for dressing City Hall to create your ideal day.

Do:

- ◆ Encase candles in lanterns with lids, on the floor
- ◆ Hang pretty aisle markers

- ◆ Prepare a unique display table with personal and sentimental items for your booklets
- ◆ Place flower arrangements on tables that you want to draw attention to
- ◆ Dress the ceremony chairs and tables with candles, flowers and ribbons
- ◆ Ensure all equipment is lifted across the floor to avoid scrapes, or on rubber wheels.
- ◆ Check out our Pinterest and Instagram accounts for inspiration

Don't:

The Options

Chairs

City Hall provide antique chairs and an antique Oak table for your ceremony. We will also provide 200 standard black fold-out chairs for your guests. You do have the option of hiring in chairs for your ceremony. We would ask that if you wish to hire in chairs, you arrange for your chairs to be collected within an hour of your ceremony ending. Chair hire details can be found in the column on the left.

Music

Music can help to create evocative memories on your wedding day. From soft acoustic sets to elegant string quartets, the acoustics in City Hall could not be more ideal. You can choose to have live musicians playing as you make your way up the aisle or alternatively you can create a playlist on an iPod that we can link to our PA system. If you wish to have a piano brought in to City Hall, please ensure that it is on rubber wheels, so that it can be easily moved into position. Live musicians must bring their own amplification equipment.

Photography

You will have time to arrange for photography after your ceremony. During your final site visit, we recommend that you take a look around the Rotunda and find spaces where you want images captured. We are happy to show you the best spots for photographs and you can let us know if you plan a group shot at the bottom of the west staircase. The wedding couple will have access to the staircase on the west wing for photography purposes. This will ensure that you have captured all the memories of your special day that you wish to keep.

City Hall Dublin

City Hall was built in 1769 and is a prime example of Neo-classical architecture in Dublin. City Hall was designed by architect Thomas Cooley and the stone work was carried out by the English stonemason, Simon Vierpyl, and the stuccadore responsible for the gilded work was Dublin born man, Charles Thorp. There are 12 Murals surrounding the dome. These Murals were painted between 1914 and 1919 by a man called James Ward and his pupils. He was the master at the Metropolitan Institute of Art in Dublin at the time. The subject matter was suggested by Alderman Thomas Kelly, and they are based around events in the history of Dublin. The central part of the Rotunda, including the mosaic Coat of Arms, was re-laid in 1898 to a design of the then City Architect Charles J. McCarthy. The white marble surrounding the Coat of Arms is actually Portland stone from the Isle of Wight. The light grey-blue marble is Sicilian; the black marble is from Co. Kilkenny; the green marble is from Co. Galway; and the red marble is from Co. Cork. All of the marble is two inches thick and is grouted with Portland cement. The work was carried out by Sibthorpe and Sons of Dublin.
