NOTES:

1. Thomas Sexton did not sign the Roll of Honorary Freedom. His name has been added in pencil by another hand.
2. Sir Hugh Lane did not sign the Roll of Honorary Freedom. His name was added in pencil by a later hand.
3. Inspired by a wave of anti-German sentiment prevalent during the First World War, Dublin City Council voted on 15 March 1915 to expunge the name of Kuno Meyer from the Roll of, Honorary Freedom. The expunging resolution was rescinded by Dublin City Council on 19 April 1920, after Dr. Meyer's death.
4. Archbishop Daniel Mannix did not sign the Roll. His name was added in pencil by a later hand.
5. Aung San Suu Kyi was under house arrest in Burma when she received the Honorary Freedom of Dublin. She Subsequently signed the Roll of Honour on 18th June 2012.
6. The names of Aung San Suu Kyi (65) and Bob Geldof (74) were removed from the Roll of Honorary Freedom on 13th December 2017.

* The numbering system, which had been disrupted by the insertion of nos. 9a, 9b, 20a and 25b, was brought into correct sequence in 1955. The next recipient, Alfred Chester Beatty, who was the 44th person to receive the Honorary Freedom of Dublin was numbered accordingly as no. 44.
