DUBLIN CITY COUNCIL PARKING CONTROL BYE-LAWS – CONDITIONS:

1. Visitors' permits may be issued to a resident who is eligible for a resident's permit, whether or not he/she holds a resident's permit.
2. You must submit 2 current (i.e. dated within the last 3 months) alternative proofs of residency showing your name and address (including flat number, if applicable) from the following: utility bills, financial statements, or other documentation acceptable to Dublin City Council. Further enquiries may be warranted and you may be contacted by a member of the Parking Enforcement Section.
3. The total number of visitor parking permits which may be issued to each eligible resident in a permit parking scheme is 80 in a calendar year subject to an overall limit of 160 visitor parking permits per single house or 80 per unit where the eligible building is divided into housing units.
4. Eligible resident means a person aged 17 or over who satisfies the Council that his/her normal dwelling place is at a building situated on a public road in a residential parking permit zone and who qualifies for a resident's parking permit under the terms of these Bye-Laws (See conditions 5, 6, 7, 8 and 9 hereunder).
5. Where the building is used as a single housing unit, the maximum entitlement is 4 residents' permits per building in a low demand zone and 3 residents' permits per building in a heavy demand zone. Where a new residents' parking permit zone is introduced after 1st September 2011, the maximum entitlement is 2 residents permits per building in a heavy demand zone.
6. Where the building is divided into 2, 3 or 4 housing units whether located in a low or heavy demand zone, the maximum entitlement is 1 resident's permit per unit.
7. Where the building contains more than 4 housing units and is located in a low demand zone, the maximum entitlement is 1 resident's permit per unit (includes converted houses and apartment blocks).
8. Residents of apartment blocks containing more than 4 housing units located in a heavy demand zone are not eligible for residents' permits.
9. Where a converted house contains more than 4 housing units and is located in a heavy demand zone, the overall entitlement for that building is 4 residents' permits, or the permit quota (if applicable) if greater, subject to 1 resident's permit per housing unit.
10. A vehicle with a Visitor's Permit displayed may be parked for a maximum of 24 hours continuous parking from the time that parking commences. This permit may only be used by a person who visits, calls on or makes a stay with the resident or is engaged by the resident to carry out works on their dwelling.
11. A visitor's parking permit is only valid for the permit parking street/s indicated on that permit.
12. Businesses, employees and non-resident landlords are not eligible for visitor parking permits.
