

Dublin Winter Lights Children's Art Competition 2022

As part of Dublin Winter Lights 2022, Dublin City Council is inviting groups and individuals of Primary School age to create artworks around the theme of "Christmas in Dublin". The winning artworks will form part of the animation projected at Barnardo's Square on Dame Street during the month of December. The top three entries will also be awarded a prize by the Lord Mayor of Dublin, Caroline Conroy.

Guidelines for artwork:

- This competition is open to children of Primary School age
- Artwork should be submitted using the template attached, in a circular format.
- Artwork should follow the theme of "Christmas in Dublin"
- Artwork should not contain any branding or political messaging.
- Artwork may be digital drawing, painting, sketch, collage etc but must be submitted as a high resolution file or scan in .jpeg, .png, .pdf format.
- Please label your file with your name/organisation/group name. Please include the child's age as prizes will be awarded by age category.
- Please do not place your name/group name within the artwork.
