

My visit to Cabra Library:

A Social Story

Purpose of the story

The purpose of this social story is to help prepare children for a visit to Cabra Library. Reading this before you visit the library will help your child gain familiarity with the library so they feel comfortable during their visit.

I am going to my local library.

The library is free to use and I am always welcome here!

At my library, I can go to the children's area.

I can choose books to read.

There are lots of books to choose from.

I can choose DVDs to watch.

I can choose computer games
to play.

I can choose audiobooks to listen to.

Children's Audiobooks

I can join the library for free and get a library card.

I can use my library card to borrow some great books and other items!

I can use the
self-service kiosk
to borrow my books.

The kiosk will beep
when it reads my card.

When I am finished with my books, I can return them for other people to borrow.

I can also borrow
and return my items
at the library desk.

Library staff
will help me
if I have questions
about the library.

Sometimes
the library
can be busy
and loud.

I can ask library staff
for ear
defenders.

I may be able to use
the Sensory Pod
during my visit.

I can also use
the sensory toys.

I can use the bathroom
if I need it during my visit.

I can go to library events
like Arts & Crafts and Storytime.

A cardboard box is shown, partially open, revealing its contents. Inside, there are several sheets of colorful paper in shades of green, yellow, and blue, some of which are curled or folded. A clear plastic bag is also visible, containing more paper and other items. The box is made of brown cardboard and has a clear plastic bag with an orange zipper seal. The background is a plain, light-colored surface.

It's fun going to the library!

It's time to go now,
but I can come
back again
another day!
