

VISITING COOLOCK LIBRARY

A social story

Welcome to Coolock Library.

We hope you enjoy your visit.

This is the main entrance to the library.

There is a drop box outside the door you can use to return your books if you don't feel like going into the library.

Inside the library, you will see the staff desk straight ahead. You are welcome to ask us any questions.

You can ring or email the library before you visit at (01) 222 8490 or coolocklibrary@dublincity.ie if there is something that you would like to know before you come.

These are library cards.

You can join the library for free and use your library card to borrow books, DVDs, CDs, magazines and games.

You can borrow up to 12 items for 3 weeks.

You can borrow or return books and other items at the library desk or you can use the self service kiosk.

This is the adult library.

The adult library is normally quiet.
People can study and read a book.

This is where we keep our CDs and DVDs.

Our magazine shelf is inside
the door to the right.

We have audiobooks on MP3
and CD that you can borrow.

We have large print books
that can be borrowed.

We have quick reads and dyslexia friendly books.

There are comfortable chairs to relax on.

When choosing your books,
we have a trolley that you can use.

This is what the young adult corner looks like.

Our young adult section is for ages 12-17.

The collection also includes exam guides.

There are computers that you can use at the back of the adult library. You will need your library card number and PIN to log on.

PCs are for adult card holders only.

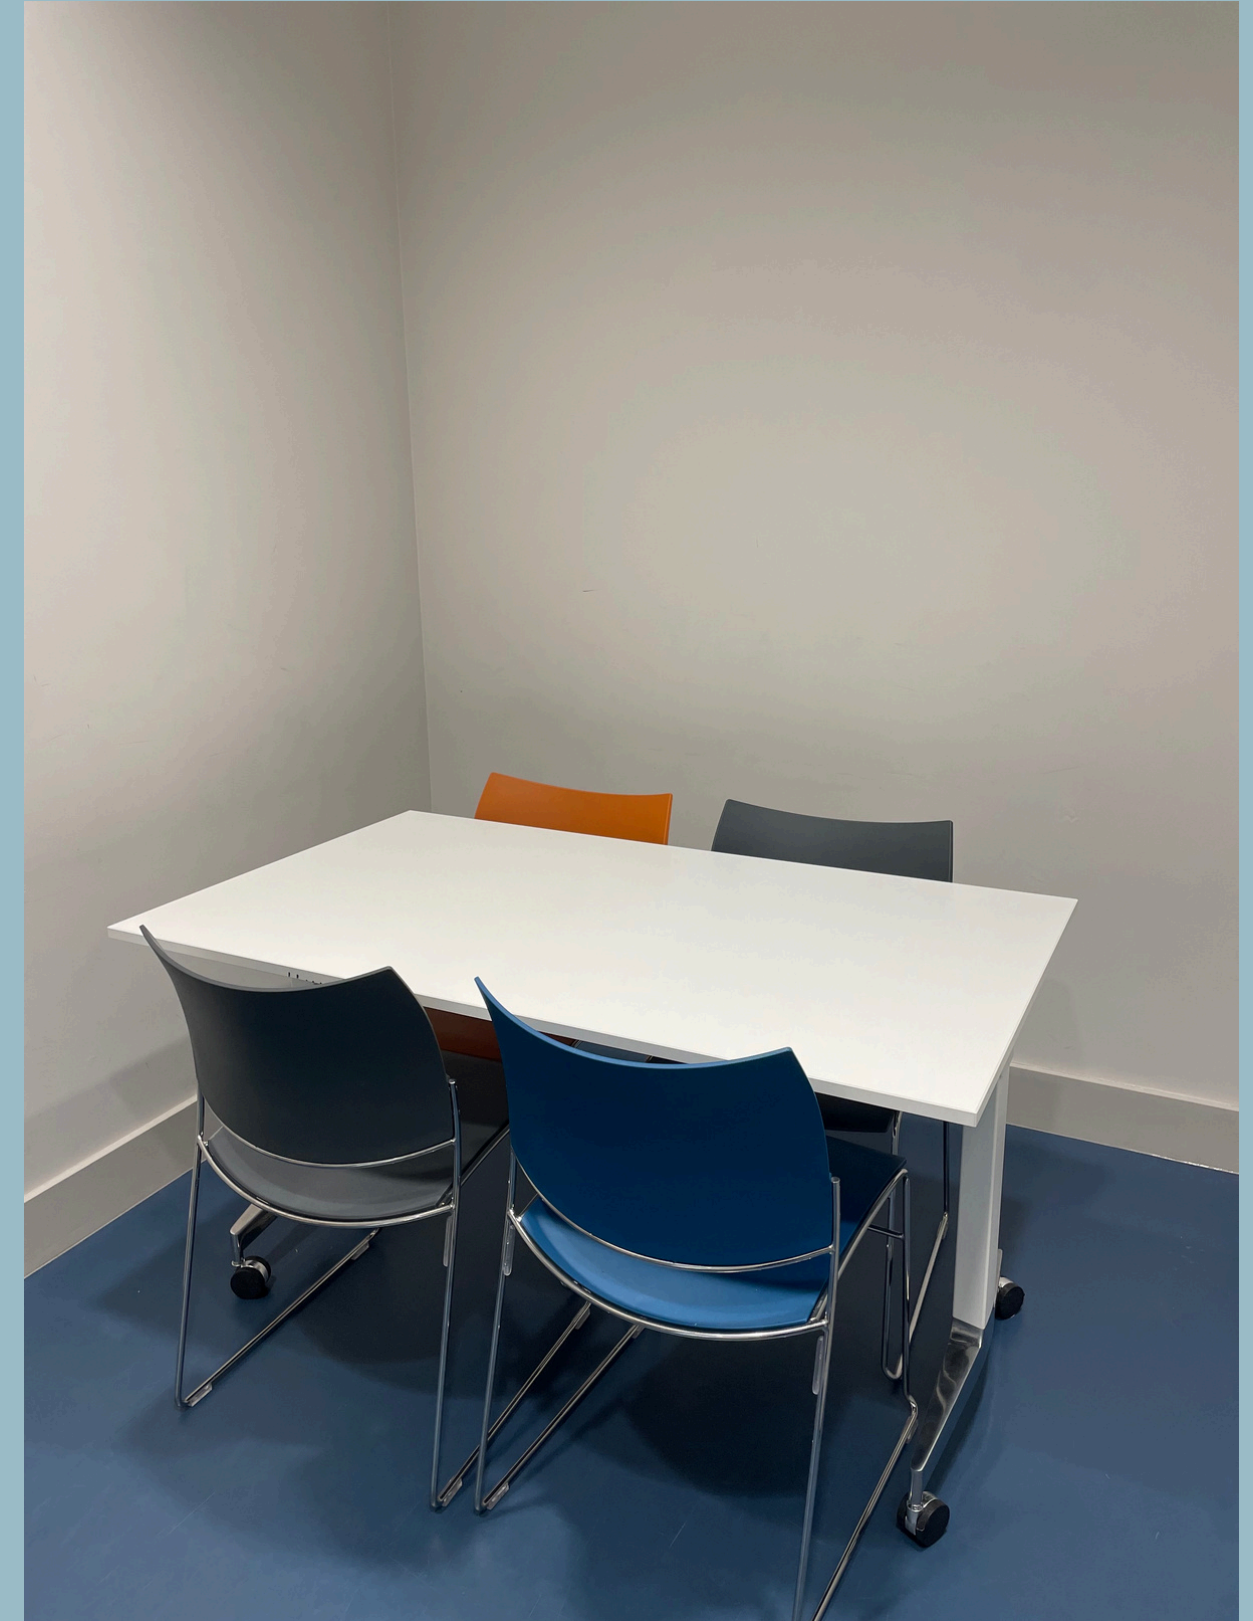

There is a photocopier, printer and scanner that you can use.

There are tables in the library
you can sit at to read, study or do homework.

We have two private study rooms that can be booked at the desk.

Sometimes it can be busy and noisy, you can ask to use our ear defenders if needed.

You can ask about events that may be on in the Library.
We have 3 event rooms

This is the Maker Space.

The Maker Space is located in the adult library. It has 3D printers and a laser cutter.

This is the desk
in the junior library.

This is the Junior Library.

It can be busy and loud, however there are quiet times during the day. You can ask the staff what times would suit your needs best.

You can ask to use the sensory Cubbie.

You can ask to use our sensory toys.

Sensory hour is held at 6pm on Monday evenings.

The toilets are at the centre of the library.

There are wheelchair accessible toilets and baby changing facilities.
