

Your Visit to Drumcondra Library

Welcome to Drumcondra Library!

This is what the entrance looks like.

If you don't want to use the steps, you can use the ramp to enter the library.

It is free to join the library and free to borrow books. You can borrow 12 items for 3 weeks.

If you are under 12, your library card will look like this.

If you are aged 12 – 17, your library card will look like this.

If you are at least 18 years old, your library card will look like this.

Inside the library, you will see the staff desk straight ahead. You are welcome to ask us any questions.

You can borrow or return books and other items at the library desk or you can use the Self Service kiosk.

When you scan your library card, you will hear a beep. Please ask us if you are unsure about how to use the Self Service kiosk.

This is what the children's area looks like.

This is the area where the adult fiction books, large print books, DVDs and audio books are kept.

We have a young adult collection of books for ages 12-17. They have red stickers on the spines. The collection also includes exam guides.

This is where the adult non-fiction area is.

There are magazines in the library that you can borrow.

You can study or do your homework at the study tables in the library.

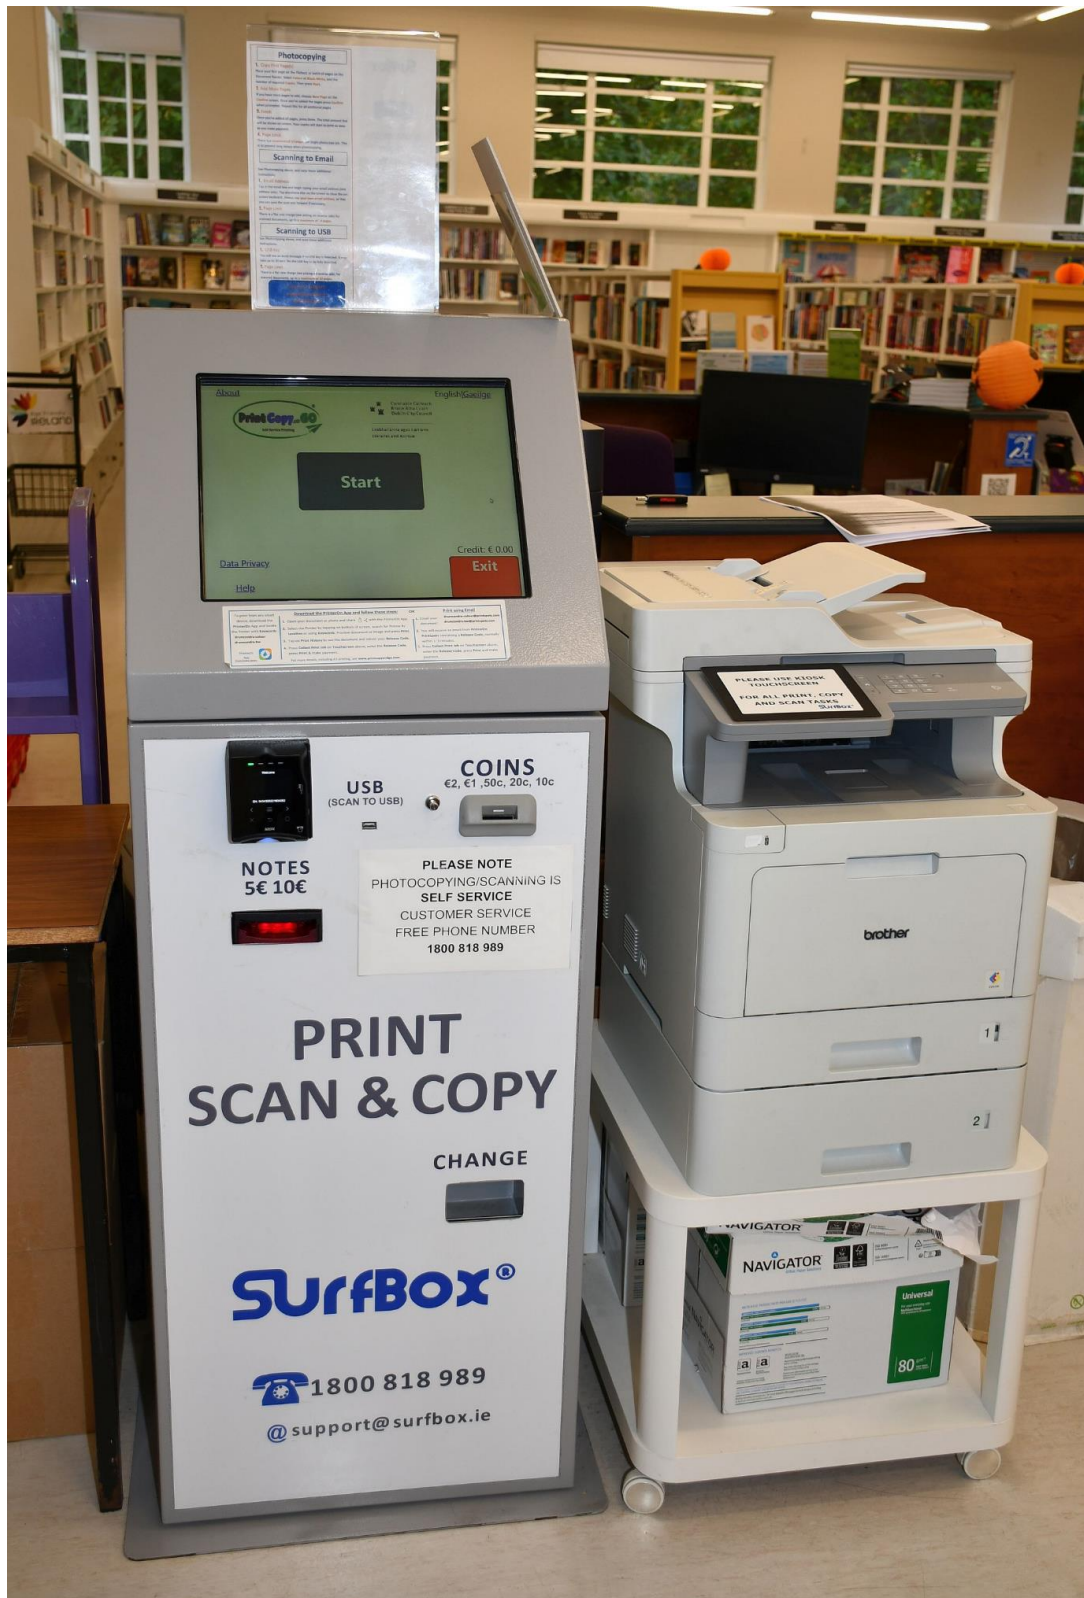

There are comfy chairs that you can sit on.

There is a photocopier, a printer and a scanner for you to use.

There are two computers that you can use. You need your library card number and PIN. You will get these when you join the library. If it's busy, we'll tell you when they will be next available.

To the right of the desk is a public toilet.

This is what the public toilet looks like inside.

The library is usually quiet but at certain times of the day, it can be noisy. You can ask the staff for the use of ear defenders.

We also have sensory toys for use in the library. You can ask for them at the library desk.

When choosing your books, we have a trolley that you can use.

Thank you for visiting Drumcondra Library.
We hope to see you again soon.
