Dublin City Council will use the data which you have supplied to assess and administer your application. Data may be shared and verified with other public bodies for the purpose of detection or prevention of fraud. Dublin City Council may, in conjunction with the Department of the Environment, Community and Local Government, process this data for research purposes.

Where requested by Dublin City Council, additional information must be provided by the applicant(s) within four weeks. All correspondence between Dublin City Council and the applicant(s) is without prejudice and subject to any transfer order.

I/We hereby apply to Dublin City Council to purchase the above property under the terms of the 2016 Tenant Incremental Purchase scheme .

I/We accept that the sale of a house under the scheme does not imply any warrant on the part of the housing authority in relation to the state of repair or condition of the house or its fitness for human habitation and that as the house will be valued on the basis of its existing condition, the housing authority is under no obligation to put the house being under the scheme into good structural condition prior to sale.

I/We accept that the maintenance and repair of the house after sale is the responsibility of the purchaser.

I/We declare that unless otherwise instructed, Dublin City Council will upon completion of the purchase, arrange to have the property vested in the joint names of the tenant and his/her spouse/partner.

I/We declare that the information and particulars given by me/us on the application are true and correct.

I/We authorise the housing authority to make whatever enquiries it considers necessary to verify the details of this application.

I/We am/are aware that the furnishing of false or misleading information is an offence liable to prosecution.

Disclaimer: This application form is furnished for information purposes only and is not intended to create a legal relationship or constitute a contract, an offer or agreement, and is not intended to give rise to any expectation or entitlement or confirm or indicate an eligibility for inclusion in this or any Tenant Purchase Scheme.

This application form does not constitute an acknowledgement by Dublin City Council of a tenancy in any premises in respect of which no tenancy exists or in respect of which a Notice to Quit/Demand for Possession/Tenancy Warning has been served or in respect of which an order for possession or a possession order has been made or in respect of any unauthorised or unlawful occupier and is written without prejudice to any existing legal proceedings.

Please note that nothing in this letter and/or in the process to which it refers shall operate to confer rights on you or any other unauthorised or unlawful occupier or affect the validity of any Notice to Quit/Demand for Possession/Tenancy Warning or any order for possession or a possession order made in respect of the premises or in any way effect or be a waiver of the right of Dublin City Council to recover possession of the premises.

Appendix 1— Supporting Documentation to Accompany Your Application

The following documentary evidence, verifying the different types of reckonable income, must be submitted.

Employee income:

one or both of the Employment Detail Summary Form (old P60) and 2 months payslips for each employment and, where necessary, a signed and stamped employer's salary certificate, stating employment terms, basic salary, overtime, commission, bonuses and any other payments.

Income from self-employment:

Form F11 Return Summary for the 2 previous relevant tax years or such documentation that satisfies the housing authority as to the nature and amount of income involved.

Payments made by the Department of Social Protection:

A. The following payments will be now considered as primary source of income:

- The Widow's, Widower's, Surviving Civil Partner's (Contributory and Non-Contributory) Pension,
- Blind Pension,
- Invalidity Pension, and Disability Allowance.

B. The following payments will now be considered as a secondary source of income:

- Working Family Payment, (old FIS)
- Age 80 (Pension) increase, and
- Rural Social Scheme.

Income from social welfare payments (including pensions) by the Department of Social Protection, will only be reckonable where these payments constitute a secondary source of income, i.e. a social welfare payment to a tenant in receipt of income from employment is reckonable income, as is a social welfare payment to the spouse, civil partner or cohabitant of a tenant in employment, whether or not that payment is in addition to employment income of that spouse, civil partner or cohabitant.

Rental income from land or property:

a copy of accounts or a statement of rental income

Interest on savings, investments or dividends:

a statement from the financial institution or other provider, detailing the amount paid;

A pension other than a pension paid by the Department of Social Protection:

a document issued by the body involved, detailing the payments made;

Maintenance payments received:

the Court Order, formal or informal maintenance arrangement or agreement, or solicitor's statement, detailing the amount and frequency and end-date of payments, and documentary evidence that the required payments are being made in accordance with the order, arrangement, agreement or statement concerned.

Income from any other source:

documentary evidence from the appropriate person or body involved, detailing the source and nature of the income and the amount paid.
