Quiet Space

There is a soft area in the Junior Library. We might like to spend some time relaxing and reading here.

There will be other people in the library reading, colouring or browsing books.

If we need any assistance, we can ask one of the library staff who will be happy to help.

Toilets

Two gender-neutral, individual toilets are at the end of the corridor in Richmond Barracks.

There are also three gender-neutral, individual toilets on the left-hand side of the gym. This room also contains baby-changing facilities.

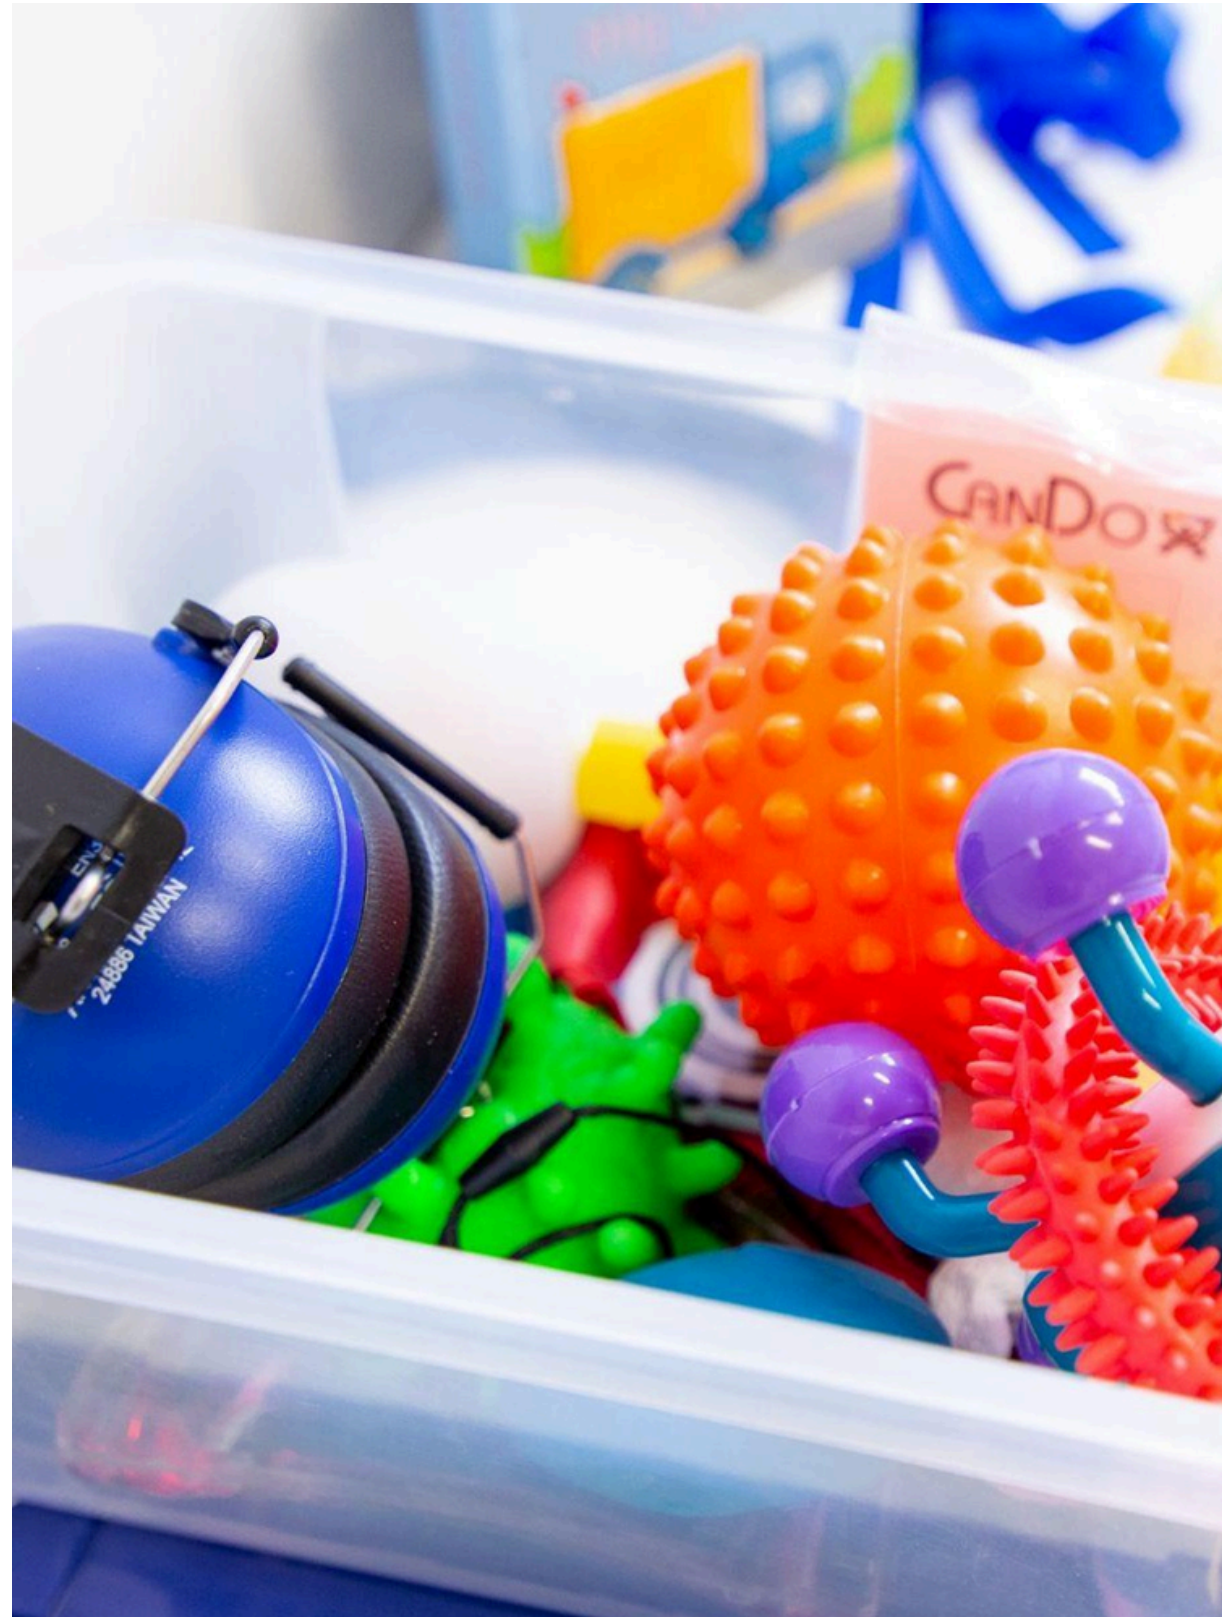

Just ask any member of staff if you need help with directions.

Sensory Toys

We have a large range of sensory toys available at the library. I can play with these at anytime, just ask at the main desk.

We also have a sensory playtime morning, on the second Monday of each month at 11am.

If it gets too loud in the library, I can ask the librarian for ear defenders.

The Garden

A large garden space at the back of the library is accessible through a door to the left of the reception desk. The garden is wheelchair accessible and buggy, child and dog friendly. Ask any staff member if you need help finding it.

I can go outside to the garden to play, read or relax.
