Let’s Walk & Talk...

A great way to stay healthy, meet people and learn about our fair city.

The Statues and Sculptures of Dublin
Thursday 13th June at 2.30pm
Meet at Thomas Moore statue, College Green, Dublin 2.
Do you know where the statues of the Ten Virgins are located on O’Connell Street? Do you know what piece of music is featured on the statue of Daniel O’Connell? Do you know which Dublin statue has a hat and a cat as symbols of Freedom? Every day we pass by the statues and sculptures scattered throughout Dublin city without giving them a second thought. Neal Doherty, bestselling author and Fáilte Ireland tourist guide will answer these questions and many more in a 90 minute walk in Dublin city centre.

A Walk on the Wild side of Fairview Park
Tuesday 18th June at 11.00am
Meet at the band stand in Fairview Park, Fairview, Dublin 3.
Join Éanna Ní Lamhna author of Wild Dublin and wildlife contributor to RTÉ and TV3, for a leisurely stroll exploring the tree lined walks and floral displays.

A Literary and Historical Tour of Rathgar
Sunday, 16th June at 11.00am
Meet at Herzog Park, Rathgar, Dublin 6. Celebrate Bloomsday in the company of local historian Ged Walsh for a tour around Rathgar, the birthplace of James Joyce, and learn about the area’s rich heritage and history. This event is organised in partnership with the James Joyce Centre and local community.

Exploring the Wild side of Merrion Square
Tuesday 16th July at 11.00am
Meet at the Oscar Wilde Statue, Merrion Square, Dublin 2
Join Éanna Ní Lamhna as we stroll around Merrion Square Park previously known as the Archbishop Ryan Park. Merrion Square Park is an oasis of tranquility in the heart of Dublin with beautiful sculptures and other attractions.

Ulysses Goes Wild!
Sunday, 16th June
1pm at the Defence Forces Memorial, Merrion Square, Dublin 2
3pm at Portobello Harbour, Portobello, Dublin 8
5pm at Noshington Café, Harold’s Cross Park, Harold’s Cross, Dublin 6
Join author of Wild Dublin, Éanna Ní Lamhna on Bloomsday for some nature tours inspired by the “marriage of trees” from the Cyclops episode of Ulysses. These events are organised in partnership with the James Joyce Centre and local communities.

A Stroll along the Grand Canal
Tuesday 25th June at 11.00am
Meet at Leeson Street Bridge, Dublin 2 (on the Wilton Terrace side)
Join Pat Liddy for a stroll along the Grand Canal from Leeson St Bridge to Grand Canal Docks passing all the new developments along the way.

Phoenix Park (the east end)
Tuesday 23rd July at 2.30pm
Meet opposite the main entrance to Dublin Zoo
Join Pat Liddy in the Phoenix Park and visit the People’s Gardens, Dublin Zoo, Garda HQ, McKee Barracks, the Hallow and the Polo Grounds. This walk will finish at the Parkgate Street Entrance of the Phoenix Park.
Let's Walk & Talk... Weekly Schedule

The ‘Weekly Walking Groups’ are led by a dedicated team of volunteers from the community and demonstrate how collaboration between the community and Dublin City Council can produce such positive results. All walks are FREE, last about 90 minutes and no advance booking necessary.
