The Committee decided to hold an all day workshop on the 12th January 2007 at a city centre venue (Venue to be arranged by Mr. Philip Maguire) to discuss (1) the operations of Joint Policing Committees (2) Anti-social Behaviour (3) Estate Management and (4) Public Order. A number of guests/speakers from the Great Britainto be invited so as to learn from their experiences with Joint Policing Committees, which have been operating there for a number of years. Representatives from all relevant Departments/Agencies/Bodies etc to also be invited.

The Assistant City Manager Mr. Brendan Kenny presented his report to the Committee on (1) Estate Management and (2) Anti-social behaviour/related drug and alcohol issues (copy of that report is attached as Appendix A to this report). Following which the Assistant Garda Commissioner Al McHugh presented his report to the Committee on Public order offences and anti-social behaviour from a garda perspective (Copy of that report is attached as Appendix B to this report).

A general discussion followed the presentations at the end of which the Chairperson said that he and Mr. Maguire would consider all of the points made/issues raised and try to mould them into an agenda for the workshops.
